1	Subject: Request for grant of F.S. 180, 229, 230, 247 of Shirgod village Tq Haveri for cultivation
2	Please see the letter no. B3-7-54/60-61 dt 15-4-60 from the PCCF.
3	This is a case relating to grant of certain enclosures specified in the letter dt 10-12-59 of the DFO. Dharwar at page. For detailed facts of the case please refer to the DFO's letter referred to above.
4	Govt of Bombay and Govt of Mysore in their no. AFD 336 DST 57 have once rejected the request for this land.
5	It is now recommended by the DFO. in his letter in pursuance of the instructions issued by the MC(FTS) that he had toured that area i.e. in Haveri to recommend the same. The DFO. Dharwar therefore recommends these areas be treated as reserve settlement.

Submitted for orders.

6 D.F.O Dharwar's letter of 20.12.59 (p19/c) gives the history of the case. In view of 'A' Items it is for consideration if

No.B3- 7 - 5 3/ /60-61 BANGALORE, DATED 16 APRIL 60.

To DFD 51 FGL 60.

The Secretary to Government,
Agriculture & Forest Departments,
B A N G A L O R E.

Sir,

Sub:-Request for grant of F.S.No.229, 230,247 of Shirgod village, Taluk, Hangal for cultivation.

I enclose herewith a copy of letter No.22/265/(56-57) 3323 of 59-60 dated 13-1-1960 from the Conservator of Forests, Belgaum Circle, along with its enclosures recommending grant of the S.Nos in question for cultivation as in-forest cultivation plots, for kind perusal.

The S.Nos. have been organised and form parts of Block XIV Hangal Range and bears 223 Sandalwood and 511 other kinds of trees. The request of the applicants for grant of the S.Nos permanently has already been rejected both by the Bombay Government and also by the Mysore Government. The land is now under the control of this Department. It is now reported that the Minister for Forests during his tour at Hangal has instructed the Divisional Forest Officer, Dharwar, to recommend the case of the applicants. In the circumstances, I request you kindly to communicate orders of Government as deemed fit.

Yours faithfully,

CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS.
